2nd Bro. Geoffrey Arroyo Heal The Bay Service Project

Last September 21, all roads led to Seal Beach as APOGLA volunteers trekked to the site of the 2nd Bro. Geoffrey Arroyo Heal the Bay Service Event.

APOGLA officers, members and even family members were one in helping out in cleaning the seaside - picking up the rubbish left by others, collecting plastic materials that harm sea life and all other kinds of trash. APOGLA members are conscious of caring for the environment. This is the foundation of our health, well-being, and the survival of the planet.

Thus, every year our organization spends time in nature and the environment. We are aware of the consequences of not taking care of our ecosystem.

After the Service Project, the GMM followed where the ff. issues were discussed:

- A) On Oct. 19 GMM, the Leadership candidates will be presented. There will be a special meeting to deliberate on the proposed change to the APOGLA Mission Statement at Bro. Tony and Sis. Ophel Amon's residence in West Hills.
- B) Date set for elections and Halloween Party at El Monte, CA is October 26.
- C) November 24 is the date set for the State of the Association Report and Thanksgiving Celebration and Awards Night.
- D) December Affairs details were discussed.

A celebration of the birthdays of all September born took place after discussions. A smooth flow of activities, the orderly discussion of issues brought up and the fun that followed were all due to the efficiency of Bro./VP Mandy Javierto and the dynamic duo of Sis./Secretary Jen Evangelista and PP Domel Evangelista.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

October Surprise and APOGLA: Navigating the Political and Service Worlds

October Surprise and Alpha Phi Omega (APO), though seemingly unrelated, both hold unique cultural significance. One is deeply tied to the political world, often shaking elections at critical moments, while the other is rooted in the world of fraternity, service, and leadership development. This message explores both context and organizational impact.

The October Surprise: A Political Curveball

In American political lingo, the term “October Surprise” refers to an unexpected event or revelation that surfaces in the final weeks before a presidential election, typically in October. It is called a “surprise” because it has the potential to influence voters’ decisions at the last minute, shifting the momentum of a campaign when time is short. These surprises can take many forms: a scandal, international incident, policy announcement, or even a new twist in an ongoing issue.

For example, just days before the 2016 election between Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton, FBI Director James Comey announced the reopening of an investigation into Clinton’s emails, which many believe impacted the tight race. This news was considered a major October Surprise that might have swayed undecided voters toward Trump. What makes the October Surprise so powerful is its timing. With little room for damage control, campaigns can be caught off guard, unable to mount a defense or fully clarify situations before Election Day. While some surprises are deliberate tactics by political operatives, others occur naturally, creating chaos and uncertainty in the final days of an election cycle.

Alpha Phi Omega: Service Beyond Politics

Alpha Phi Omega (APO), on the other hand, operates in a vastly different sphere. Unlike the term “October Surprise,” which invokes political intrigue and strategy, Alpha Phi Omega is synonymous with community service, leadership, and fellowship.

October Surprise and APOGLA

A good part of our membership still remembers the October Surprise in APOGLA’s storied history. It was a clash of principles that should have been complementary but ended up almost tearing the fabric of brotherhood. The strength of our diversity in opinion that led to GMMs that continued past midnight was challenged with integrity violations within our ranks. Looking back at this over a decade later, APOGLA remained resilient. We have grown stronger and better as a result, as the situation validated a culture of service and leadership at the grassroots level being much better than playing political games in an organization committed to staying APOLitical.

Our Fundamental Truths

- Commitment: APOGLA is driven by altruism, aiming to serve and improve society without ulterior motives. Our willingness to serve does not wait until it is asked for.
- Consistency: APOGLA thrives on consistency. We work year-round to make an impact in our communities.
- Continuity: We impact society through a slow, steady accumulation of service projects, leadership development, and personal growth in our membership.

In an age where politics often feels divisive, APOGLA’s mission of fostering friendship and service is a refreshing reminder that we can all contribute positively to society, regardless of the surprises that may come our way in the world of politics.

Cheers,
BRO. JOEL CARBON
 APOGLA, President 2024

Sorority Sisters at the Hollywood Bowl

For better bonding, the Sorority Ladies had a night out last September 14 at the Hollywood Bowl and watched the Boyz II Men Concert.

That night was like hitting two birds with one stone. They were also celebrating the birthdays of Sisters Bic Bic Ford and Liza Valera. Aside from these two ladies already mentioned, the others who went were: Sisters Malou de Leon, Melody Ang-Gayon, Josie Tarculas, Emma Galang and Apple Soledad. With these ladies in a very active mode, you can be sure more activities like these are a-coming.

Amazing APOkid!

Congratulations and best wishes to Brod Glenn Matthew Rivera and Victoria Rose "Aya" Rico, on the occasion of their marriage on a cool afternoon on September 14, 2024. Brother Glenn, son of Bro. Art and Gie Rivera, also an APhiO brother from Lambda Mu Chapter (California State University Los Angeles and Aya exchange vows at Saint Kateri Tekakwitha Church in Santa Clarita, CA officiated by Fr. Vaughn Winters.

After the joyous and glorious ceremony, a grab and go of beverages and Porto's pastries at the church plaza, guests, friends, family members took the one hour drive to the Spanish Hills Country Club in Camarillo, CA. There, everyone basked in the glory of the beautiful scenery of the mountains and the golf course as they enjoyed the cocktails and hors d'oeuvres with music and songs of the live entertainment.

Celebration continued to the elegant ballroom for the special dinner, cheers, fun, laughter, fellowship, toast of the Best Men and the Maids of Honor as well as tear dropping stories of the Father of the Bride. The party is not complete without dancing and the black and white dance floor was always jammed with revelers to the music of the Pepperdine DJ. The special day will be remembered as we all shared and created memories to be cherished for a lifetime.

Glenn and Aya, we all wish your journey of "togetherness" be filled with joy, love, faith, grace and happiness. Cheers and "Mabuhay!"

The MIND and its powers

by Bro. Ferdie Yambot

“What one thinks, one becomes!” Let us start with its fundamentals using an illustrative metaphor. The human mind is like an iceberg; its vastness-the subconscious, hides beneath while only a minute portion is above water, representing consciousness. There is also a small partly visible portion (referred to as the pre-conscious) that can be brought to conscious state easier than the deeply submerged part.

The CONSCIOUS mind – It contains all the thoughts, memories, feelings and desires one is aware of. Our sensory perception, our conceptual thoughts, our remembering, our emotions, our volition and self-awareness are its intricates. The SUB-CONSCIOUS mind – Is a vast reservoir of information that “influences” thoughts, emotions and behavior. It stores our beliefs and values and monitors the information around deciding what to bring to consciousness and what to remain in storage for later. Of course, it also contains an unpleasant side (i.e. fears, insecurities, etc) that manifests in one’s life too. The fact is . . . Successful people use it as the foundation of their resilience while navigating thru life adversities.

One big question is . . . “Can the sub-conscious be somehow re-programmed to neutralize its negative effects?”. It may surprise you, but the answer is YES. All the Shrink’s previous postings on TNB (i.e. Strong Mind, Positivity, etc) can be made as building blocks to rejuvenate towards pleasantries.

Not to be off tangent, let’s go back to the main topic: What one thinks, one becomes. First, it isn’t a surprise that its origin is traced to a famous someone, Buddha. Frankly though, it plain sprung out of this feeble mind while honing its powers! Ha ha ha. As great as Buddha was/is, he (me too) can’t be wrong. Our thoughts create our REALITIES, and we have the ABILITY to choose which thoughts we focus on! They can open the gates even to our wildest dreams!

In my own formative years, “THAT” was (still is) my mindset . . . Therefore, I BECAME! (in my own little way) HAIST.

PA-UTANG naman dyan. Ha ha ha

FROM MY POINT OF VIEW

Venezia: The World's Renowned Lagoon

By Bro. Dan E. Nino

Venice, Italy — Visiting Venezia or well known by its international name Venice, has always been a tourist hub in my bucket list to visit someday. True enough, when my family visited Florence to attend a destination wedding that coincided with my birthday, I made sure to visit Venice. It was a dream come true, indeed.

Venice, a former city state republic of Italy, is one of the most visited tourist attractions in the world where tourists from all nationalities and stripes congregate in one small place. It is pulsating with vibrant life and joy or a city that doesn't sleep like New York or Las Vegas. However, there were no casinos that I encountered.

love and self-interest. The play suggests that mercy or forgiveness is ultimately more important than legal justice and the dangers of excessive greed. It's how the greediest character in the play loses his wealth, daughter, and religion. It's somewhat controversial between Christian and Jewish outlooks with the Christian position taking the upper hand.

The journey from Florence to Venice, northern part of Italy is two hours and five minutes by high-speed train traveling 155 miles per hour, passing by the small cities of San Marino, Ferrara, Padova and Bologna. The Latin language is very similar to Spanish. From the main island, we took the so-called water taxi to Venice, four kilometers away and about two kilometers from the open sea. We stayed here for three days exploring the narrow streets.

Venice is an archipelago of small islands separated by a network of waterways connected by concrete foot bridges. The longest of the canals is 3.8 kms. And the widest is from 30 to 70 meters. There are 350 small and big bridges that interconnect various zones of the city. Originally the bridges were made of woods. Then in 1480, the foot bridges were replaced by arched stone structures. The insular Venice is only about seven square kilometers including the popular island of San Giorgio Maggiore and the Giudecca. We had to tow our heavy pieces of luggage from the landing harbor to the hotel since vehicles are not allowed here. Be sure your legs are strong.

We dined at one of the more popular seafood restaurants in front of the main plaza. Here, we encountered three Filipino food servers (two guys and one lady. We handed tips to the two servers who directly served us our meals and who also took our photos. Thereafter, the two informed the other guy about our tips. He immediately came to our table and exclaimed, "namamasko po," although it's far from the holiday season. I was at a loss for words.

Venice, no doubt is notoriously expensive tourist destination for a vacation, taking into consideration the hotel, food, wine, gondola rides, museums like the Doge's Palace (home to the supreme authority of this former republic), souvenir items, tips, etc. But for once in my life, I felt filthy rich with my family drinking wine at Piazza San Marco fronting the St. Mark or San Marco Basilica, where the Clock Tower proudly stands and where pigeons swoop down on us while basking under the bright mild sunshine watching tourists all over the world. I learned that this wide swath of square fronting the cathedral was once cultivated as a vegetable garden or used to pasture horses. I also learned from our tour guides that this main square was flooded due to high tide due and continuous rains that also spilled into basilica of St. Mark.

Venice was a symbol of luxury in Shakespeare's time. Its geographical position made it an intermediary between Europe and the East.

Back to the Merchant of Venice: the play's moral lesson conjures that love and family are more important than money which isn't everything, that mercy is better than revenge, and that love is more important that lasts forever. On the other hand, more cynical opinions argue that money rules the world, that mercy alone can't run our lives, and that love can disappear after marriage. —

GOINGS ON by Sis. Fely Logarta-Montecillo

Hi everybody! Let's welcome October all together shall we?

*"October gave a party, the leaves by the hundreds came.
The Ashen, Oaks, and Maples and leaves every name,
The sunshine spread a carpet, and everything was grand,
Miss weather led the dancing,
Professor Wind the band"* - George Cooper

So to all born this month, that poem is for you! Those born between September 23 to October 22 are under the zodiac sign Libra while those born from October 23 to November 21 fall under the sign of Scorpio.

The Librans are well-known for their captivating charm, and quality elegance. They adore art, intellectualism and connoisseurship. These air signs make excellent designers, decorators, art critics and stylists.

The Scorpions, on the other hand, are known to be passionate, intense and magnetic. They are also secretive, loyal and ambitious. According to astrology, people with the Scorpio zodiac sign are passionate, intense and magnetic. And to all our Libran and Scorpio Brothers and Sisters, here's wishing all of you a year of health, happiness, peace and prosperity.

Important dates to watch out for this month: 12th - Farmer's Day, 13th - National Train your brain day, 14th - Columbus Day, 24th - United Nation's Day, 29th - Internet Day, and the 31st - Halloween.

*****

The recent Geoffrey Arroyo Heal the Bay Service Event at Seal Beach, which proved to be very successful, once again demonstrated our commitment to service. No matter how early one had to prepare that day, everyone was at the site on time if not earlier.

That, notwithstanding the fact that most worked from Monday to Friday. Congratulations one and all for your sincere participation in this noteworthy project.

Hopefully, by the time our TNB is out of the press, our globetrotting brothers and sisters would have been home so we can welcome them back to the fold and they would have been able to join us in electing our newest set of officers for 2025. If not, then all we can say is enjoy your travels and stay safe!

*****

And speaking of elections, I was overjoyed upon learning from Sis Ofel herself that she has decided to run for APOGLA President this coming elections since up to Wednesday night nobody has announced any interest in running. Actually, personally this is a long delayed move. It's important to note that she reached this decision after conferring with some close "advisers". I wish you all the luck Sis!

*****

Our hearts go to Sis DitDit Maynard (Sigma, Batch '73), on the passing of her beloved husband Joseph Maynard, (affectionately called Uncle Jo) due to natural causes last September 27. Sis DitDit and Jo were vacationing in Manila when this happened. Allow us to extend our heartfelt condolence to Sis DitDit, Brod Prince Edward Laygo (Alpha Mu, Batch 2003), and to the rest of the family on the loss of your beloved Joe Maynard.
